

Test 15

Victims and Perpetrators in the Bible (2)

1. Israel praised my beauty, for I had no blemish from the sole of my feet to the crown of my head. My pride let me to attempt to overthrow my father from the throne. Later as I was fleeing from his soldiers, my hair caught in a tree, and my mule ran away. Who am I?
2. My impatience at my brother's lateness of return caused our people to build an idol, which was an abomination to God. I then built an altar around the idol and declared a feast unto the Lord. Who am I?
3. I was hanged on the gallows which I had prepared for another man. Who am I?
4. I was a husbandman and planted a vineyard. I became drunk and my youngest son came in and looked upon me as I was naked, and went out to tell his brothers. They walked backward into my tent and covered me. The youngest son was cursed, and became servant to his brothers, because of his actions. What was his name?
5. I was weighed in the balance, and found 'wanting'. Who am I?
6. As a result of a law that I signed, a man whom I admired was placed in a den of lions, but was not harmed. Who am I?
7. I sealed my fate, and someone else's with a kiss. Who am I?
8. A group of people teased me for being bald. I cursed them, and two bears came out of the woods, and killed 42 of them. Who am I?
9. Even though I gave my handmaiden to my husband, when she conceived, I sent her away and an angel found her in the wilderness by a fountain. Who am I?
10. Beware of women bringing gifts in lordly dishes! My last meal was milk served to me in a lordly dish. However, the lady came back and drove a tent peg through my temple. Who am I?
