

Who am I?

1. I was the first choir director.
2. I got mad at my husband when he danced through the streets.
3. My son was Saul, the first king of Israel.
4. When I heard that the Ark had been captured, I fell backward from my seat which resulted in a broken neck and death.
5. I bore many children for Elkanah.
6. When my name is spoken, many people think of a beautiful, yet treacherous, woman.
7. Don't come into my tent and go to sleep!
8. The work of the Levites was under my direction. I was in charge of the 'detail' work of the worship tent.
9. I was the father-in-law of Moses.
10. I am described as 'tender-eyed', although my husband loved my sister more than he loved me.
