

This is Good?

Romans 8:28-39

Perhaps the most difficult thing to do in life is to thank God for the trials. Sometimes in life it is hard to balance what we know with how we feel. How do we bridge the gap between heartache and hope? The answer is faith. The only way to resolve what I know from the Scriptures with what I feel in my heart is to put my faith in the Word of God. The Bible says in Romans 10:17, :So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.” Romans 8:28 provides some of the greatest truth ever discovered in the Bible when it plainly and emphatically states: “And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them that are called according to His purpose.” This verse speaks to the sovereignty of God in the affairs of His people. Here’s some lessons that we can learn from this passage.

1. The Believer’s _____ - vss. 29-30

- Philippians 2:13-18

2. The Believer’s _____ - vss. 31-34
