

LOVE AND THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

COMMANDMENTS VI AND VII

Commandment VI

Exodus 20:13; Deuteronomy 5:17

Thou shalt not kill.

This commandment protects the sanctity of _____.

Genesis 9:6

Genesis 1:26; 2:7

Romans 13:1-14 (capital punishment)

Be subject:

Powers:

God:

Ordained:

Murder:

Premeditation: (Exodus 21:14)

Lying in wait: (Deuteronomy 19:11, 12)

With hatred toward the person: (Numbers 35:21; Deuteronomy 19:11)

NOTE: The nearest relative of the deceased was to kill the murderer

(Numbers 35:19)

God's attitude toward murder:

Murderer's life should be taken: (Genesis 9:5; Numbers 35:33; I Kings 2:32)

Curse upon Cain: (Genesis 4:11)

Will avenge those who are not judged for their acts: (Deuteronomy 32:43; I Kings 21:19; Hosea 1:4)

Unsolved murders:

Deuteronomy 21:1-9

Accidental death:

Refuge:

Cities of refuge (6)

Numbers 35:1-34

God is our refuge: (not an all inclusive list of references)

Psalm 9:9; 46:1-3, 7, 11; 57:1; 59:16; 62:7, 8; 91:2; Hebrews 6:18, 19

Matthew 5:21, 22

"Ye have heard...but I say..."

Raca:

Fool:

I John 3:15-----Murder is hatred in action.

Hatred is murder in feeling.

LOVE: The Lord of love gives life; His children will never take it away from another.

Commandment VII

Exodus 20:14; Deuteronomy 5:18

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

This commandment protects the sanctity of _____.

NOTE: God established the family before He established government or the church.

Adultery violates the principle God established when He created man and woman.

Genesis 39:7-9 (adultery violates God Himself as well as the other person)

Deuteronomy 22: 22-24 (punishment)

John 8:3-7 (where was the man?)

