

Test 14

Victims and Perpetrators in the Bible

1. None of my words are recorded in the Scripture, yet my blood cries out from the ground. Although I was slain, the method of my death is not known. Who was my killer?
2. I saw, coveted, and took Babylonian garments, silver, and gold, although my instructions were to take no spoil from the war. Upon being found guilty, I and my family were stoned to death and then burned. Who am I?
3. I lied concerning the sale price of my land. Immediately, I fell down and died. Later, my wife met with the same fate. Who am I?
4. A young girl requested my head on a platter as her payment for her dancing at a birthday celebration. She had received instructions from her mother. What was the mother's name?
5. While I was being stoned, a young man stood by, consenting to my death. He later became a writer of many of the books in the New Testament. What was his name?
6. I was only a lad. Yet with 5 stones in my pouch, I used one of them to kill a Philistine giant. What was his name?
7. My brother's and I sold our dreaming brother to a caravan. Many years later he was a governor and we went to him for food. I offered to stay in Egypt while my brothers returned home to get our youngest brother. What is my name?
8. I was raised as Pharaoh's grandson. As an adult I killed an Egyptian and fled for my life. Who am I?
9. I was accused of rape by my employer's wife. I was placed in prison. Who was my accuser?
10. I cut off a piece of cloth from my enemy's garment, just to show him that I came close enough to kill him, but I chose not to do so. I later regretted my action. Who am I?