

To Worship God Acceptably, Must Be Right with Each Other

Matthew 5:21-26

6X Jesus says 'ye have heard'; and 'But I say unto you' vs 21,22,27,28,31,32,33,34,38,39,43,44

Jesus came to fulfill the law, because mankind cannot flawlessly fulfill the law--

Jesus is enough--we cannot do anything extra to obtain salvation-- vs 21,22 murder is visible--anger can be hidden in the heart--quiet anger leads to bitterness--

II Corinthians 10:4,5--bring every thought to Christ and submit it to Him-- Philippians 4:8--(Paul is writing this while in prison)--think on things true, honest,just,pure,good report-- vs 22 Raca-imbecile--looking on someone as though they are worth nothing-- Fool--unsaveable--'you deserve hell'

None of us are saveable on our own merit vs 23,24--'Therefore' --look back and see what happened or was just said-- despising a person imperils your own soul--try to reconcile if someone has ought against us--you are not responsible for how the other person accepts your apology--we may have to live with the pain of rejection-- Romans 12:17
